

Memorial Day Observance

Monday, May 29, 10:00 am

A day of remembrance in Prince George County.

Join our active duty and retired military, students, JROTC students, Scouts, and local officials in remembering those who gave so much. The keynote speaker will be Brigadier General Jeffrey W. Drushal, Chief of Transportation, and Commandant of the Transportation School, United States Army.

The Center is located at 6406 Courthouse Road in Prince George, 23875. Information: 863-0212 or PGHistory@aol.com. In the event of rain, the observance will move to the second floor of the Heritage Center.

“An Honored Place”, the Center’s War Memorial Exhibit, will be open until noon. Please visit the gallery on the first floor and share in the stories of the men who are represented on the County’s memorial stones. Wade Lanning, the project director, will be available to discuss the progress so far and what remains to be done.
